

give hope for the holidays

Residential Reentry Wishlist

Make the holidays a little brighter for your neighbors in need.

Help those involved in the justice system return home and become productive members of the community. You can help provide the men and women in our community reentry programs with basic necessities, clothing and other supplies they need to succeed. Enlist your friends and neighbors to collect the items below. Items will go directly to the men and women in our reentry programs who are working to reach their full potential and get back on their feet as members of their community.
